MIDDLE WEST ASKS FOR A JUDGESHIP

Representation Wanted on the Supreme Bench.

VAN DEVANTER IS INDORSED

Name of Wyoming Judge Presented to the President with Strong Recommendations-Knows Conditions in Mining, Irrigation, Conservation, and Indian Affairs.

At yesterday's session of the Supreme Court of the United States, but seven judges were present, Mr. Justice Moody's centinuing illness making it impossible for him to sit with the court, and the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Justice Brewer, being yet unfilled. The depleted condition of the court is likely to con inue some time, for there is no imme diate prospect of Mr. Justice Moody's omplete recovery, and the President has stated that he intends giving ample time to the question of selecting a successor Justice Brewer.

While, of course, efforts are being nade with the President on behalf o ertain sections of the country, and for the appointment of certain jurists, there are no candidates, in the usual sense of the word. Among those whose name have been presented to the President with considerable earnestness is Judge Willis Van Devanter, of Wyoming.
